

16th October 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Remembrance Bench Reveal – Monday 11th November.

Your child has been involved in the design competition for the Remembrance Bench. The project is coming along really well and the 'big reveal' is planned for Monday 11th November at midday, at the public open space opposite the Library. Members of the Town Council will be there as well as representatives from South Devon College and the carpentry students who have hand made the bench.

The children will walk to the town centre with members of staff and participate in the 'reveal'. If you would like to come too you are more than welcome. We are hoping that there will be representatives from the press there too.

It is a wonderful opportunity to celebrate and give thanks for those who fought for us in the war.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Edwards
