

February 13th 2020

Dear Parents/Carers,

To celebrate reading, World Book Day is back with a bang on Thursday 5th March 2020, offering a brand new line up of brilliant titles from some of the nation's top children's and young adult authors and illustrators for absolutely nothing. As we really value reading at All Saints Marsh C of E Academy, we like to make sure every World Book Day is celebrated in an enjoyable fashion. Every child will come home from school with a £1 voucher for you to spend on an exciting new book, in any local bookstore.

Due to our love of storytelling, on Thursday March 5th we are asking all children to bring in their favourite book that we can share with the class. This will be a non-school uniform day and if you would like to dress up as your favourite character please feel free to do so!

Spending just 10 minutes a day reading and sharing stories with children can make a crucial difference to your child's outcome and it's fun for all involved. You can read together anywhere and everywhere, from breakfast to bedtime! In the park, on the train, on the sofa, on a plane – reading and sharing stories can happen anywhere at any time. Therefore to finish off the day splendidly, we would like to welcome you in to share a book with your child on Thursday afternoon from 2.30pm onwards.

It will be a fun filled, passionate day filled with stories and adventures... Where will your story book take you?

Yours sincerely

Mrs Edwards
