

Reading websites

For one of your English week challenges, you have been asked to read as many books as possible. With libraries closed, we thought that might a bit tricky so here are a list of websites with free eBooks.

www.booktrust.org.uk

BookTrust have a small selection of books to read as well as stories to listen to and games.

www.oxfordowl.co.uk

Oxford Owl has a huge selection of free eBooks including Read Write Inc books, Oxford Reading Tree books (Biff, Chip and Kipper).

www.amazon.com

As well as their Kindle books to buy, they also have free Kindle books for children. There are roughly 100 free books in each of the children's sections.

https://www.barnesandnoble.com/b/free-ebooks/nook-books/_/N-ry0Z8qa

Barnes and Noble have a selection of free eBooks for children of different ages (and some for adults too, should you wish to join in with the reading challenge).

www.openlibrary.org

Open Library has over 22000 free online books for children to enjoy.

www.childrenslibrary.org

The International Children's Digital Library have a wide range of children's books to read online.

www.storylineonline.net

Storyline Online have stories to listen to as well as books to read.